Your Husband-

is he not dear to you? Should you not be careful of his health? Maybe he is sometimes weak and run down from the effects of overwork, or worry, or carelessness. But you need not be alarmed; a tablespoonful of three times a day for a week or two will make him well and strong.

And this is how it does it: It purifies and enriches the blood and gently stimulates the action of the vital organs, and helps them perform their proper offices. Don't neglect trifling ailments.

Brown's Iron Bitters is pleasant to take, and it will not stain the teeth nor cause constipation. See the crossed red lines on the wrapper. Our book, "How to Live a Hundred Years," tells all about it; free for 2c. stamp. BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY. A lady in writing from Appomattox to a friend in this city, says:

The Appomattox division of the Daughters of the Confederacy had its third meeting at "Court View," the residence of Mr. C. W. Hunter at West Appomattox, on Tuesday afternoon last at 3:30 o'clock. There was a good attendance of members, and the interest increases with each meeting, some ladies coming five and seven miles in conveyances to attend.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. W. Hunter, who proceed to read letters from Mrs. Phillip T. Yeatman, of Alexandria, president of the Mary Custis Lee division; from Colonel Kirk Otey, of Lynchburg, and Mrs. Wm. Parsley, of Wilmington, N. C., vice-president of the order in that State, notifying the Appomattox division of the meeting of the divisions of this State at Alexandria on October of this State at Alexandria on October 22d, to elect a State president and other State officers. Appomattox finding it could send no delegate to represent the division, decided, at the suggestion of Colonel Otey, to appoint Miss Kate Mason Rowland, of Washington, to represent it by proxy. Mrs. P. T. Yeatman wrote suggesting to Appomattox division that it vote for to Appomattox division that it vote for Mrs Lottie Preston Clark for State president. Mrs. Parsley, of North Carolina, wrote asking for information as to the most defective points noted in the national constitution in forming the Appomattox chapter. Mrs. Pars-ley is one of the committee appointed to revise it. The division requested Mr. J. W. Flood, Mrs. M. L. Harvey and Mrs. J. R. Atwood to attend the meeting of the daughters to be held in Atlanta on the 8th of November. It is very probable that all three will go. Miss Nina Jones, treasurer, reported having collected a snug sum to be used in improving Appomattox ceme-

Mrs. M. L. Harvey read the minutes of the last meeting. Her compilation of the minutes rendered them a splendid piece of composition.

Mrs. Thomas A. Smith, Mrs. William Gills, Mrs. J. W. Flood, Mrs. R. F. Burke and Mrs. J. R. Rosser, committee, fixed the date of the regular meet-the second Sunday of each month.

The meeting adjourned to convene next at the home of Mrs. M. L. Harvey, on November 15th .- Lynchburg

A WOMAN HORSEWHIPPED.-There was a lively scene on Broadway, in East St. Louis, a few evenings ago, when Mrs. Grace E. Leady, wife of the proprietor of the Silver Moon restaurant, publicly horsewhipped Miss Etta Lord, the result of jealousy on the former's part. Miss Lord is the head waitress at the restaurant. Mrs. Leady alleges that, because of the attentions shown Miss Lord by her husband, she was forced to leave home last May Mr. Leady at once instituted proceed-ings in the city court for divorce on the ground of ahandonment and incompatibility of temper, and the case is now pending before Judge Canby. Mr. Leady and Miss Lord were taking an evening stroll when surprised by Mrs. Leady, who struck the young woman a stinging blow across the young woman a rawhide, and followed it up with a dozen more. Mr. Leady endeavored to protect his wife's victim, but with little success. Mrs. Leady, after finishing, repaired to Justice Wyatt's office, pleaded guilty to assault and battery and was fined $5.

FIVE CHILDREN AT A BIRTH .- Mrs. Joseph Langdon, the wife of a farmer living near Delta, O., gave birth on Monday within the space of three hours to five children, all of them males. News of the unique event reached Delta Monday, and was for a time given no credence. Investigation, however, confirmed the report. The five children are apparently fully developed, though frail specimens of humanity, and the attending physicians say they will all live. Mrs. Langdon has experienced no serious result. She is past 35 years of age, and has three other children.

A False Diagnosis.

A False Diagnosis.

La Grippe is confounded by many persons with a severe attack of catarrh, which in some respects resembles the former. These individuals suffer severely with pain about the forehead, eyes and ears, with soreness in throat and stoppage of the nasal passages, and in fact, are incapacitated for work of any kind for days at a time. These are catarrhal sufferers. Ely's Cream Balm has been used with the best results in such cases. The remedy will give instant relief.
